LIBERAL JUSTIN TRUDEAU PAPINEAU, QC: "Mr. Speaker, as we approach the 25th anniversary of the Polytechnique tragedy, we are debating Bill C-42, which would allow dangerous weapons to be freely transported in a trunk of a car. Imagine if that car were broken into. The bill also takes classification decisions on guns away from police and puts them in the hands of politicians. Does the Prime Minister recognize how dangerous those clauses of the bill are?"

LIBERAL JUSTIN TRUDEAU PAPINEAU, QC: "Mr. Speaker, Bill C-42 would allow handguns and assault weapons to be freely transported in a trunk anywhere within a province, even left parked outside a Canadian Tire or local hockey arena. Imagine if the car carrying these weapons were broken into or stolen. The bill also takes classification decisions on guns away from police, and puts them in the hands of politicians. Both of these provisions threaten Canadians' safety. Will the government remove them from Bill C-42?"

HOUSE OF COMMONS ENVIRONMENT COMMITTEE - March 26th, 2009 / 10:30 a.m.

LIBERAL JUSTIN TRUDEAU PAPINEAU, QC: "Park wardens, I know from stories and personal contact with friends, are often armed with rifles and .30-06s and guns to deal with bear issues and such. So there are many people out there with guns who are on our side, perhaps not specifically enforcement officers, but certainly a warden often carries a gun in back-country situations. Are we not a little bit worried about potential conflicts there?"

LIBERALS OPPOSE CONSERVATIVE GUN BILL (C-42)

Instead of ramming this bill through as-is, we are encouraging the government to split C-42 in order to help expedite the acceptable measures through Parliament.
