THE GUN BLOG - PAL APPLICATION FORM WRITTEN AS A LETTER (HUMOUR)

TheGunBlog.ca — Canadians need a licence authorized by the federal police to legally buy, sell, own or transport any gun, and to buy ammunition. Here's a humorous look at how a licence application might look if it were written as a letter. Dear Federal Police, I'd like to please request your permission to own firearms.

ONTARIO GUN OWNERS DODGE A BULLET: FORD PCS KILL "COSMICALLY STUPID" AMMO BILL

Ontario's legal gun owners can thank Doug Ford's PCs for yet another victory for common sense after they quashed the Liberal's Bill 30 that would have allowed municipalities to ban the sale of handgun ammunition — even for police and the military! And even if the Liberals imagined in their wildest fantasies that they could get rid of every bullet, do they really believe the bad guys wouldn't figure out a way to make their own?

FUREY: ILLEGAL BORDER SCREENINGS “INCOMPLETE SECURITY PORTRAIT”— RCMP DOC

An internal national intelligence report from the RCMP obtained by the Toronto Sun breaks down some of the security challenges caused by the recent influx of asylum seekers crossing illegally into Canada. “The surge of illegal (between the ports) migration into Canada in summer 2017 placed a considerable strain on Canadian border and immigration resources,” explained the January, 2018 report, obtained through access to information laws. “The screening of these subjects through CPIC, NCIC, Interpol and PROS — time permitting — provides an incomplete security portrait, as subjects might hold records of criminal activity within local databases of their countries of origin. The RCMP requires access to local holdings to improve the detection of previously affiliated crime/gang members attempting to illegally enter Canada.” By Anthony Furey - October 15, 2018

FACTSCAN SCORE TRUE - BILL BLAIR: CRIME GUNS ARE “OFTEN STOLEN OR ILLEGALLY DIVERTED OR SMUGGLED IN FROM THE UNITED STATES.” While the data on this topic is limited and somewhat flawed, experts agree that historically, most crime guns in Canada have arrived unlawfully from the US. Some new reports contradict this view and imply that a higher rate of crime guns are domestically sourced, however, these reports show that domestic crime guns have been illegally diverted (straw purchases), as opposed to being legally owned by the perpetrators. RUSSIAN GOVT. HAS GUN LAWS DEMS WANT, STILL DIDN'T PREVENT 89-CASUALTY SCHOOL SHOOTING

The liberal claim is familiar: Mass shootings are uniquely an American problem, and we just need more gun laws to fix it. However, a horrifying attack in the Russia-ruled territory of Crimea this week is casting doubt on both those assumptions. At least 21 people were murdered and 68 were injured at a college in the territory after an 18-year-old student went on a rampage. It didn't take "assault weapons," the go-to villain of American liberals, to cause the carnage. Instead, the killer allegedly carried out the attack with a shotgun and makeshift bombs before taking his own life in the city of Kerch, on the far eastern end of the Crimean Peninsula on the Black Sea. BALTIMORE'S GUN OFFENDER REGISTRY IS A MISFIRE

In October 2007, then-Baltimore Mayor Sheila Dixon established a gun offender registry to help combat violence. "I want to make Baltimore the toughest place in the country on gun crimes," Ms. Dixon said when the registry was signed into law. But over a decade after it was created, the registry has proved to be ineffective in reducing gun violence, extremely punitive, racist, and perhaps even unconstitutional. The Baltimore registry was modeled on a similar database created by

New York City in 2006, the first in the country. It works like this: Anyone convicted of at least one gun-related offense—including nonviolent misdemeanors — in Baltimore’s Circuit or District Court is required to register their name and address with the city’s police department. Then, they must check in with the police every six months for three years and update the required information as needed. By LARRY SMITH JR. October 16, 2018

TERENCE CORCORAN: WHY INSURERS KEEP HYPING 'CLIMATE RISKS' THAT DON'T

MATERIALIZER - The latest insurance industry initiative wanders even deeper into the quagmire of green policy advocacy. Combating Canada’s Rising Flood Costs, a new report from the Insurance Bureau of Canada (IBC), urged governments across the country to adopt “natural infrastructure” to limit escalating climate change risks. The report continues the insurance industry’s 20-year practice of hyping climate risks. At an industry conference in 1999, one executive warned: “The increase in extreme weather events (in Canada) is part of a global trend in which climate change has played a significant role.” The evidence was non-existent then, and not much has changed in the interim, despite the industry’s claim that climate-driven flood risk is escalating.
